

Year Book
Kentucky Conference
Methodist Episcopal Church, South
1919

The Central Methodist

Organ of the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences and the Property of These Two Conferences

This old and well-established Paper, which has so well served the Cause of Methodism in Kentucky and West Virginia for so many Years, was purchased by the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences a year ago, and is now the Property of the Church. A pertinent Question arises: Will the people who constitute the Church, support their own Paper?

The Kentucky and Louisville Conferences believe they will. EVERY PREACHER MUST BE AN AGENT: EVERY MEMBER A SUBSCRIBER.

Subscription Price, $1.50 per Year in Advance. To Preachers and Widows of Itinerant Preachers, $1.00.

In many respects this is the most vital interest of the Methodist Church in Kentucky. Upon its success depend all the other enterprises of the Church.

REASONS FOR TAKING THE CENTRAL METHODIST.

1. It will make broader, more intelligent, and more useful Church Members.

2. It will be a blessing to the Home of the subscriber. It will keep constantly before his children the Church and its work.

3. He takes his farm paper, his business journal, his lodge organ; religion is worth as much as any of these.

4. He is obligated to do it. This is one of the Institutions of the Church. He promised to support these Institutions. He must support the Church Paper, or else he will fail in keeping his Church Vows.

5. The Paper is indispensable to the work of the Church. We can not do without it. But it can not run without a subscription list. If the Church members do not subscribe for it, it will fail. As a Church member he must do his part to make a success one of the things necessary to the success of his own Church.

Send all Communications to, and make all Checks and Money Orders payable to,

To the Presiding Officers and Members of the Kentucky Conference.

Dear Brethren:

At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kavanaugh Camp Meeting Association, which was held Saturday, August 16th, on the grounds near Crestwood, it was suggested in view of the fact that these grounds were established about forty or more years ago by our deceased Bishop Kavanaugh and that the grounds are so well equipped with tabernacle, dining hall and cottages, it might be well for this Conference to become more directly interested in the grounds and the up-keep of same with a view to establishing a permanent place for the Young People's Missionary Meeting of the two conferences as well as the State Epworth League conferences or other religious assemblies under the auspices of the Methodist Church. The Camp Meeting is, and has been, held annually ever since the grounds were first established.

At that meeting, the following names were suggested, representing the two conferences, as a board of directors, but to be subject to a ratification of same by the conferences or said conferences might make such changes as they deem essential to all interests of the Church:

Class 1917.	Conference.
Rev. Harry Short	Louisville
Rev. W. B. Campbell	Kentucky
E. O. Harbin	Louisville
I. E. Mossbarger	Kentucky
Rev. W. P. Fryman	Kentucky

Class 1918.
Rev. S. J. Thompson	Louisville

Class 1919.

Rev. Paul Powell	Louisville
George P. Kendrick	Louisville
Rev. O. B. Crockett	Kentucky
Dennis Snapp	Kentucky

To this end, the following resolution was presented and unanimously passed and we are herewith giving it to you, asking you to pass upon it as you deem best and have your action put in writing and send a copy of same to the undersigned as secretary of the Kavanaugh Camp Meeting Association:

"Moved that the Board of Managers of Kavanaugh Camp Grounds submit to the Kentucky and Louisville Annual Conferences the names of the Board for the ensuing year for ratification with such substitutions or changes as the said Conferences may deem wise and best for the growth and development of Kavanaugh Camp Grounds, to the end that it may render to the two Conferences the greatest possible service."

The following question was submitted to the Bishop for an Episcopal Decision:

At the last session of the Kentucky Annual Conference when the names of the members of the Class of the Second Year were being called, the Committee of Examination reported that a member of the class had taken studies in a college classified by the educational authorities of the State of Kentucky as a standard college, though he had not used the books prescribed in the course of study, and that a majority of the committee had accepted this work as "equivalent" to that prescribed in the course of study. One of the three members of the committee dissented from the action of his colleagues on the ground admitted by the majority of the committee of examination that the college referred to had not met "the minimum requirements" of the Commission of ten practical educators, and had not been classified by the General Conference Board of Education as a "standard college;" that the college referred to was not a Methodist college, not belonging to nor being controlled by the Church, and this minority member of the committee asserted that the college referred to was not a "standard college" in the meaning of the Discipline, nor could the work done in this college be accepted by the committee of examination as "equivalent work" under our law.

In connection with the report of the majority of the committee of examination that the candidate referred to had passed the course of study, the Bishop in charge was asked the following question which contained the signature of two members of the Conference:

"On account of the confusion that has arisen among our examining committees in interpreting that part of paragraph 778 of the Discipline that says 'A certificate from a theological seminary, or from the Biblical Department of a standard college, that equivalent work has been done, may be accepted in lieu of the biblical and theological subjects prescribed for candidates for admission or for conference undergraduates.'

"We wish to ask Bishop Denny's decision of the following question: What is 'a standard college,' and have the examining committees the right to accept the work done in the Biblical Department of a standard college as the equivalent of the work in the course of study prescribed by the Bishops, when the books used are not identical with those in the prescribed course?"

The Bishop in charge gave the following answer:

"A standard college" in the paragraph referred to (Par. 778), is not a college accepted as "standard" by the educational authorities of a State, but a college meeting the minimum requirements laid down by the commission of ten practical educators and classified as standard by the General Board of Education (Par. 364); that "equivalent work" means work done in an institution which meets at least these minimum requirements.

All examining committees, including the committee of examination in this special case must approve the examination of a candidate before he can be admitted on trial, or advanced to another year, and that without such approval of the examining committees the Conference cannot vote on the question to advance an undergraduate (Par. 167, Par. 168, Par. 178); but that these examining committees must hold the candidates responsible for a knowledge of the books prescribed in the course of study (Par. 580), except in the specific cases referred to under the proviso in Par. 778.

COLLINS DENNY,
Bishop in Charge.

Reports of Committees

(By a strange oversight, the following reports of Committees were omitted from their proper place, and are inserted here.—Editor.)

ORPHANS' HOME.

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, beg leave to submit the following report:

The President of the Institution, as well as the Superintendent, has submitted to us the very careful report of the year's work, and after carefully considering these and also after interviewing carefully the Superintendent, who was before us in person, we are happy to say that we believe it is the best report ever brought before our Conference.

We note with much pleasure that three of our girls, having completed the course in the city schools, have been placed in Logan College, where they will be prepared for their life work.

The Institution has handled seventy-nine children this year, there being fifty-seven in the Home at the present time. Twenty-six children have been received and twenty-two placed in homes.

Your committee would request that you confirm the election of S. O. Snyder, W. T. Baker, Dr. C. B. Petrie, and Mr. Lee Lewis for three years. This completes the Board with R. E. McDowell, Val F. Kimbel, G. W. Olmstead and E. S. Boswell for one year, John C. Strother, R. M. Smith, Rev. W. E. Arnold, and E. B. Walthall as members for three years.

We also recommend that you confirm the election of E. S. Boswell as Superintendent, and Mrs. Jessie R. Williams as matron. The President's report commends very highly the faithful service of these two workers.

We believe that our Institution is today one of the best ordered plants of the kind in the state and is gradually becoming more useful and better qualified to render the best service for our children.

We believe that our children have the advantage of good moral and intellectual training and the testimony of those who have visited our Institution is that the atmosphere of the Institution is happy and cheerful.

We append herewith the financial report of the President.

B. O. BECK, Chairman.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, submit the following:

All the books were presented to the Committee and were carefully examined. All were found to be well kept except as follows:

In Danville Record, the Roll Call was not properly entered in the body of the Minutes, and the writing is somewhat crowded, so that it is not as legible as might be.

The Frankfort Record fails to enter two supplementary reports.

Maysville Record is well kept except slight grammatical errors found on pages 171-2, and on the same pages some words are evidently omitted.

S. J. BRADLEY, Chairman.

F. T. HOWARD, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

The Committee on Temperance and Social Service wishes to express the gratification that the church in general feels over the unchecked progress of the movement for the abolition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the United States of America.

Remarkable success has attended the labors of these who have worked to reform the nation from the drink evil. In this efficient service the Church of God has been the dominating factor, and in the church the ministry has furnished the leadership, and in the front ranks of the ministry have been the Methodist preachers of America.

The fact that forty-five out of the forty-eight States of the Union promptly ratified the National Prohibition Amendment, shows the sentiment of our country toward the legalized liquor traffic. However, we feel the necessity of calling the attention of the church to the fact that, since the turn taken in politics in the matter of war-time prohibition has complicated the temperance situation, there must be no diminution of interest on the part of the temperance forces in the effort to destroy the liquor business. We must leave nothing undone that will help us to consummate this high and righteous purpose.

On November 4th of the current year, the people of our Commonwealth are to vote on a Constitutional Amendment to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the State. We wish to impress both upon the ministry and the laity the importance of aggressive and united action in helping to put this amendment into the Constitution.

The earnest, faithful work of the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and other temperance agencies, is greatly appreciated. We understand that these various organizations are effecting a confederation of their forces for the purpose of laboring unitedly to make Kentucky dry. We heartily commend this action and recommend co-operation with the leaders of this united movement.

We call especial attention to the fact that at the November election there will be presented to every voter two ballots, one for the election of State officers, the other for the vote on the prohibition amendment.

Nothing at this time can contribute to the best interests of Social Service like the annihilation of the liquor traffic. And nothing can defeat the amendment except undue optimism and the inactivity of the temperance people. Our patriotic and religious duty is, therefore, to work to win the fight with an overwhelming majority. The people of the nation have their eyes on Kentucky. The press of the country is awaiting our action. To lose in the conflict would be an eternal disgrace. Kentucky must never be classed with Connecticut, New Jersey, and Rhode Island in the temperance history of the future. We must rise up in our manhood and womanhood, and drive the liquor forces from our fair border forever.

Your Committee feel that one of the alarming evils of the recent terrible world war is the rapid and wide-spread increase of the cigarette habit among our young men, and we wish that something may be done to stay the manufacture and sale of cigarettes. We wish to commend the recent action of the Legislature of Nebraska in passing a law prohibiting smoking in the hotel dining rooms or restaurants within the State. It is to be hoped that the Legislature of Kentucky may do likewise.

We trust that other evils coming within the scope of temperance and Social Service discussion may receive proper attention.

We recommend the following persons as Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of the State: M. S. Clark, W. E. Arnold, W. W. Ball, B. C. Horton, and J. T. Morgan.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Kentucky Conference Board of Missions is pleased to report a very gratifying progress in our great enterprise during this year.

We have heard with great pleasure the plan of the Centenary Commission for the conservation period of the Centenary and especially do we receive with hearty co-operation the plans of the joint evangelistic committee, which is working under the auspices of the Board of Missions and the Centenary Commission, for a church-wide revival of genuine power. We pledge the support and prayers of the Kentucky Conference to the whole conservation and evangelistic program of the church and pray that God may add many souls to his kingdom.

We therefore recommend that W. V. Cropper be appointed as Conference Missionary Secretary for the ensuing year, and that he be allowed a salary of $2,400.00, and necessary expenses, with the understanding that two-thirds of said salary and expenses are to be paid by the General Board and one-third paid out of the funds of this board.

We recommend for appointment as Conference Evangelist, J. W. Hughes.

POLICY OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Kentucky Annual Conference Board of Missions, desiring to promote the efficiency of its work, suggests that the following plan be laid down in order to attain a desirable end, but with the distinct understanding that changing conditions may necessitate changes in the plan, and such changes are to be made, from time to time, as the judgment of the board may determine.

We recommend that careful inquiry by the Presiding Elder in consultation with the Conference Mission Secretary be made into the possibilities of each mission charge and that all such charges be classified as A, B, and C, charges.

Class "A" may consist of those charges that are likely to become self-supporting in three years. Such charges may have their appropriations decreased automatically, one-third of the original appropriation each year.

Class "C" may consist of those charges which can be expected to become self-supporting within six years and may be subject to decrease one-sixth each year.

Class "C" may consist of those charges which may have to be maintained for a number of years with little or no sign of self support.

MISSIONS CLASSIFIED AS FOLLOWS.Covington District.

Class A—Carthage, St. Luke's.

Class B—Newport.

Class C—Covington District Mission.

Danville District.

Class A—Burnside.

Class B—Preachersville, Moreland.

Class C—East Bernstadt, East Pulaski, Meadow Creek, West Pulaski.

Maysville District.

Class A—Helena, Washington.

Class B—East Maysville.

Shelbyville District.

Class A—Lawrenceburg, Mortonsville, Eminence and Bethlehem.

Class B—Pleasant Valley.

The Presiding Elder will be expected to see that the amount deducted by the board be made up by the charge as far as is possible.

It shall be the general policy of the board not to make appropriation to any charge which in their judgment is able to pay its pastor at least $1,000.00.

For the missions of unusual promise, we request that the Bishop and cabinet provide men adapted to the work of that field.

The Ten Per Cent Centenary Fund.

The Conference Board will receive in January, 1920, 10 per cent of the total amount paid to the General Treasurer, John E. Edgerton, on the Centenary pledges within the bounds of the Kentucky Conference and the same per cent for five successive years.

The following is the plan for handling this fund:

1. Not more than 50 per cent of the yearly remittance of the General Treasurer of the Centenary Fund be added to the receipts of the regular Conference Missions assessment for appropriation to the several mission charges.

2. That 25 per cent of the yearly remittances of the General Treasurer of the Centenary Fund be designated as a fund for the maintenance of a Preachers' Institute, which shall be conducted under the auspices of the Board of Missions. Details of the same to be worked out by the Executive Committee of the board, or to be used in such a way as the board may determine to the end that the salaries of the underpaid ministers may be increased.

3. The 25 per cent of the yearly remittance of the General Treasurer of the Centenary Fund be held by the Treasurer of the board as a reserve fund or working capital, all amounts drawn from this fund to be replaced.

We recommend that W. A. Swift and H. W. Bromley be appointed Conference and General Evangelists.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Church will be gratified to know that the work of the General Board of Church Extension is progressing uninterruptedly. The total income for the last fiscal year was greater than that of the preceding year by $144,000.00. The receipts of our Conference Board show a decrease. The future seems hopeful, since the Board will share in the great Centenary fund for use in its distinctively missionary territory.

The General Loan Fund continues to grow, but is still inadequate. Our Conference Loan Fund now amounts to $1,563.00, all of which is appropriated.

Our ministers are urged to keep before the people this great department of the Church. It has abundance of literature explaining the various features of its work. Ask for and distribute it.

The Architectural Department of the Board will give you valuable assistance in formulating plans for your new Church.

We ask for a place on the program of each District Conference.

The Conference Board had before it at its present meeting applications aggregating $9,550. To meet this demand we have $2,813.93. Appropriations were made as follows:

Park Avenue, Lexington	$500
Lynch Mines	500
Campbellsburg	300

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Our last General Conference, which indorsed the Centenary Campaign which has been brought to such remarkable success in its financial phase, also ordered that for the last two years of the quadrennium a great, church-wide educational campaign should be carried forward to strengthen the Church College and Universities throughout Southern Methodism. The Educational Commission, which has this matter in charge, are formulating plans to begin this campaign in 1920, and reach the canvass for funds in 1921. We heartily endorse this campaign and pledge our co-operation.

Christian Education cannot compete with secular and state institutions unless the Church provides schools whose equipment enables them to compare favorably with these other institutions. Here in the territory covered by the Kentucky Conference we are losing too many of our young people to out side institutions.

We recommend the appointment of E. G. B. Mann as Conference Commissioner of Education, and also as Conference Secretary of Education.

We recommend the payment out of the Fund for Aid of Young Ministers of all fees of the undergraduates in the correspondence school.

We recommend the following from the Correspondent School:

1. That our Lord's method of supplying our pulpit be followed, namely, Prayer to the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth laborers into His harvest.

2. That every Sunday School be requested to properly observe Vocation Day.

3. That every pastor be urged in accordance with the law of our Church to preach at least one sermon a year in every pulpit on the claims of the Christian ministry, and that this be followed by personal work among the young men of his congregation.

4. That our preachers be requested to speak on the subject of the ministry to the pupils of the schools accessible to them.

5. That the authorities of our colleges and schools give cordial welcome and assistance to the life service campaign among students conducted this session by the Centenary Commission of our Church.

6. That the plan for financial help for students for the ministry, as above described, be adopted.

7. That our Examining Committees keep the law of the Church and recommend only those for Admission on Trial who have a diploma of full graduation from a standard high school or academy, or who have made equivalent advancement in their studies. In the absence of this diploma the Committee must examine the candidate on the fourteen points necessary for admission into a standard college. This takes the place of the old form (the ordinary branches of an English education.) The examination on the theological studies is in addition.

8. That the Commission on Religious Education from your Conference be elected if this has not already been done.

We recommend an assessment of $10,000.00 upon the Conference for Conference Education, and an assessment of $800.00 for aid of young ministers. Since the Louisville and Kentucky Conferences have a common educational field and interest we recommend even a closer and more practical co-operation with the Louisville Conference in educational work.

We report the following statistics: Institutions, 1; students, 230; teachers, 16; endowment, $110,000.00; value of property, $162,000.00.

E. G. B. MANN, President.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

The Kentucky Wesleyan College reached the highest enrollment the past scholastic year in its history, viz., 230. And as a result of the increased attendance the college enjoyed the largest income. The endowment has at last reached the point where the General Board of Education has given it "A" grade. It has, however, been doing "A" grade work for many years.

We are glad to announce that Bro. F. E. Lewis, of Smithfield, Ky., has left a legacy to the College which is expected to realize from $7,000 to $8,000.

Dr. J. L. Clark has resigned as President of the College to return to the pastorate. He has served as President for eight years. During his administration, the Carnegie Library, the Dormitory for young women, and the Gymnasium have been built and thus added to the equipment of the College, also a home for the President has been purchased. These various buildings represent a $50,000.00 increase to the property of the College. The endowment has been increased from $62,000.00 to $110,000.00. These items speak more eloquently than words as to J. L. Clark's presidency. Rev. W. B. Campbell has been unanimously elected to succeed Dr. Clark. He has taken hold of the work of administration with vigor and intelligence, and we feel confident that the College will increase in usefulness and student body under his guidance.

A unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corpse has been placed by the Government in the College which will insure military training to the young men. The young men's Dormitory will be under partial military discipline this school year. And the outlook for the school year is very promising.

E. G. B. MANN, President.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

The pen is mightier than the sword. The printing press is the most potent factor in our civilization. What a nation reads determines its character. In the infancy of the Methodist Church in America a publishing house was established to furnish the membership with Christian literature, following in this the example of John Wesley.

The sales of our Publishing House and its branches aggregate $1,210,000, an increase of $54,042 over last year, adding a net balance to the capital of $26,335. In view of the enormous increase in the cost of labor and material this is an excellent showing. These things have made it necessary to advance the price of our Sunday School literature.

Commercial men say "anybody can sell goods to the one who wants them, but a salesman is one who can sell goods to the man who does not want them." Our Agents are confronted with the problem of how to get our books into the homes of our people. We would suggest that more space be used in all of our periodicals in advertising them. A system of colportage might be successfully employed. Better to use the profits of the business in circulating our literature than in increasing the capital. We need a greater variety of religious books suited for family reading. The newspaper and fiction have almost crowded these out of our homes.

It behooves the Church to keep this fountain of influence pure. It was never designed to be a money-making institution. In order to make a good financial showing there is a temptation to cater to the public, and furnish the most popular literature. We would admonish our Book Agents against this danger. Outside of the news of the day nine-tenths of the reading of the people of the United States is fiction. We find little else in the homes of our Methodist people. Are the Publishing House and the preachers doing their duty in putting Christian literature into these homes? This light reading can not form Christian character. The book stores of our towns and cities are little more than distributors of fiction. Our Publishing House has fallen into line and the most largely advertised books are books of fiction. Agents in large numbers are visiting the homes of the nation soliciting subscription for magazines of fiction at very low rates and even offering premiums to sell them. The only antidote for this evil is Christian literature, and if the Church does not furnish it, there is no remedy. We can only call attention to this subject; we have not space to discuss it.

Our Periodical Publications—We most heartily endorse the Quarterly Review, the Christian Advocate, the Missionary Voice. These periodicals are just as good for the laymen as for the ministers and we would urge the laymen to put them in their families. There should be a mighty effort made to put the Missionary Voice into every Methodist home. We pastors should see that our congregations are canvassed for this magazine. During the year the Christian Advocate has increased its subscription list over 22,000, but almost all of these are short term subscribers and it remains to be seen how many of these are retained. Notwithstanding the sterling merits of this paper it is published at a great financial loss. This is true also of our most excellent Methodist Review and the Epworth Era.

Our Sunday School Literature—This department of our Publishing House is doing excellent work, and we urge our schools to use this literature. For some reason the song books of our Publishing House are being displaced by other similar publications. We are not prepared to give the reason for this, but we would call the attention of our Book Committee to this fact and ask them to consider the matter. We most heartily endorse the Epworth Era.

The Central Methodist—This paper, now the property jointly of the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences, has entered upon a new era which promises great things. We learn from the management that the purchase price has been paid, and that twenty-five hundred dollars has been added to the assets as profits from the business. The subscription list has jumped from 6,500 to 10,500, and is rapidly becoming dependable. Delinquent subscribers will soon be a thing of the past. The business of the office now demands an Assistant Manager and the Committee has employed Rev. S. A. Arnold to fill that place. His reputation as a financier and business man is evidence of the wisdom of the Committee. Dr. Arnold is maintaining the high character of the paper and it takes rank with our best Conference organs.

While the drive for new subscribers was so successful, "there remains much land to be possessed." There are three things which the management wishes emphasized: First, that it is as important to renew a subscription as to get a new one. Second, that another drive be made to put the paper into every Methodist home. Third, that the presiding elders and pastors see that every official member is a subscriber.

We thoroughly endorse these suggestions and pledge our hearty co-operation in carrying them out.

Something New—We are greatly impressed with the enterprise of the management. They propose to furnish the preachers and churches with anything in their line from collection envelopes to a pipe organ. It will be necessary for one to take the Central Methodist to find out what all these things are.

Church and Parsonage Insurance—The management has secured the agency for the National Mutual Church Insurance Company whose headquarters are at Chicago. The prime object of the management is to serve the Church. In doing this all parties will be benefitted. The Church will save money and the treasury of the paper will be replenished.

W. O. SADLER, Chairman.

PUBLICATION COMMISSION FOR THE CENTRAL METHODIST.

To the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

On the 16th day of September, 1918, we took charge of the Central Methodist, promising to pay therefor the sum of $3,750.00, or $1,875.00 each for the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences. A subscription had been taken in the Kentucky Conference with which to pay this amount, and to date the Kentucky Conference has paid to the Treasurer $1,962.50. Later a subscription was taken in the Louisville Conference for the same purpose, and $1,743.71 has been paid by that Conference; making a total paid on the Purchase Fund of $3,706.21. The paper came to us free from any indebtedness.

At the time we took over the paper, 6,500 copies were being printed each week. We are now issuing 10,500 each week—a gain of 4,000, which indicates the net gain in number of subscribers.

Control and management of the paper was assumed before the session of the Louisville Conference, but when that body met, they confirmed the purchase of the paper, appointed their members of a Joint Publication Commission, and took a subscription which more than covered their part of the purchase price. Of that subscription, as stated above, $1,743.71 has been paid, and we are sure the balance will be paid in the near future.

Before a meeting of the Joint Commission could be held, Dr. S. M. Miller, one of the members from the Louisville Conference, fell on sleep. The other members of the Joint Commission met in Louisville, October 15, 1918, and elected Rev. S. J. Thompson to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Dr. Miller. A. R. Kasey, of the Louisville Conference, was elected Chairman, and B. C. Horton, of the Kentucky Conference, Secretary. The Commission confirmed the election of Dr. W. E. Arnold as Editor and Business Manager, and elected him Treasurer of the Joint Commission.

We call your attention to the increased circulation as shown by the figures given above. Much of this increase is due to our intensive campaign for new subscribers. While the increase is gratifying, it is not near what it should be, nor what we hope it will be before our next Conference session.

The moving of the office to Louisville was a good move and is justified in the success of the year's work. We most heartily commend the editorial work and business management of Dr. W. E. Arnold, and with pardonable pride invite comparison with other Conference Organs as to contents and make-up of the paper. Our Editor is competent and capable, and is giving us a paper which is, at least, equal to any other Conference Organ in the Church. We believe and insist that it should be in the homes of all our people.

We are planning for the enlargement and extension of the work of the paper and the broadening of the service which it can render to our people. In carrying forward these plans, we have elected Rev. S. A. Arnold as Assistant to our Editor and Business Manager, and request his appointment to this work. In order to equip himself for this work, he is now taking a special course in Bookkeeping and Accounting. We hope soon to be able to supply our preachers and people with whatever they need in their church work. We have secured the State Agency of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company, and have made arrangements for other business that may be profitably added to the work and office of the Conference Organ.

We recommend that each Conference elect annually a Publication Commission composed of two ministers and one layman, and that a majority of these, if practicable, be selected with reference to their accessibility to Louisville.

We have elected Dr. W. E. Arnold Editor and Business Manager for the next year, at a salary of $2,500.00, his entire time to be given to the paper and its interests. We request his appointment to this work.

In view of the fact that less than fifty per cent. of our people are now readers of the Central Methodist; and realizing how vital to all our work is our paper, we most earnestly request that all our pastors, members of our Official Boards, and all our Conference Boards and Institutions for whose advancement the paper works, shall unite in an earnest effort to maintain and increase its circulation; and thus constantly enlarge the opportunities of the paper to render helpful service.

We urge all pastors to work for a constantly increasing circulation. We do this because the paper is now the property of the two Conferences, is one of our own Institutions, and we must provide for our own! DO YOU REALIZE THAT THE CENTRAL METHODIST IS YOUR PAPER? Brethren, the paper is your own. "He that provideth not for his own, hath denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever."

We submit the financial status of the paper as follows: Receipts from all sources from September 16, 1918, to August 31, 1919, $——— Disbursements for all purposes from September 16, 1918, to August 31, 1918, $———. Balance in cash, paper stock, and bills receivable, $2,467.28.

Publication Commission.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

There were a great many handicaps in promoting our Sunday School work last year. The war, the epidemic, and many other impediments were in evidence to check and retard our progress. Regardless of these difficulties there have been good results in our work and a growing tendency to move forward to greater things.

In the Centenary campaign our Sunday Schools were given a definite task. Each school was asked to give an amount equal to a total of five cents per month per pupil enrolled. One hundred and thirty schools in the Kentucky Conference accepted their allotment and the sum total of their contributions will amount to $5,930.64 annually. The fact remains, however, that over two-thirds of our schools have not yet accepted their quota. We wish to urge the importance of this matter and we sincerely trust these schools which have not assumed their missionary obligation will do so. We wish to call attention to the fact that a number of our schools are pledging amounts in helping to raise the Conference claims in various churches. This should not be done and it is not legal according to our Discipline.

About forty Sunday Schools ordered programs for the observance of Sunday School Day. This is an important date in the Sunday School calendar and one that should be made very profitable in forwarding the work. It is important that each school observe this day not only by taking a special offering but with appropriate exercises.

Your Board recognizes that one of the most essential things in the work of the Sunday School is that of trained leaders. It is quite evident that the success of the entire work of the Sunday School rests upon this one fact. The Church now has the opportunity of a great leadership in the world, but it must have trained leaders in order to take advantage of this great opportunity. The Church must conceive its work in educational terms and an educational consciousness must be created throughout our entire connection. To this end the General

Sunday School Board has recommended that the last Sunday in September be observed as Teacher Training Day. We suggest that each pastor present this subject to his congregation and emphasize the necessity of organizing a training class in his school. To further this work of training it is the plan of your Board to arrange a Standard Training School to be held at Kavanaugh Camp in conjunction with the Louisville Conference. This school should at once commend itself to all interested in Sunday School work and it should receive a liberal support on the part of the Church.

Last January Mr. Dennis V. Snapp was employed to give full time to the Sunday School work of the Kentucky Conference. He will visit as far as possible every pastoral charge, going to as many Sunday Schools as can be reached, giving charts and standards and acquainting our people with the plans of the Church in the field of religious education. He will also arrange Institute meetings and conferences and in various ways promote the interest of the work.

We wish to call attention to the excellent work accomplished by Mrs. G. E. Cameron as Elementary Superintendent. The Conference now holds a third rank standard in this department of work.

In conclusion we need the sympathetic and hearty co-operation of all our people in carrying out a constructive program of work. We ask the same assessment upon the Conference as last year.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

When the Epworth League Board was elected for the Quadrennium last year there was no money in the Treasury. The Conference had never made an appropriation for Epworth League work, and the activities of the Board had necessarily been limited. But following the plan of the General Conference an assessment was made by the Conference for the expenses of the Board, and the Conference Epworth League, and we were able to begin active League agitation. A set of definite plans was formulated and will be more completely developed during the quadrennium.

As in every other situation relating to the life of the Church, the pastor is the key man, and we trust that the time will come when every pastor in the Kentucky Conference will have a vision of the possibilities of the Epworth League. The League has demonstrated its value too often to be questioned. For the amount of attention given it, no auxiliary in the Church has yielded larger returns. Ninety per cent. of our life service consecrations today are coming through the Epworth League. Six thousand young people are gathering in assemblies and Conferences each summer where they are trained and inspired in spiritual things. The Kentucky Epworth League Conference is half as large today as the Kentucky Conference itself. The peculiar work of the Epworth League is Conservation, and the best means of establishing the new life is to enlist the young converts in active Christian work in League. The Epworth League has a special program to conserve the work of the Centenary. This program is three-fold, including stewardship, personal evangelism, and prayer.

The watchword of our League Board this year has been "The Church without Leaguers today will be the Church without Leaders tomorrow." The League teaches young people and children how to pray in public, how to lead meetings, how to testify to personal salvation, how to overcome timidity, and gives them a taste for public work in the Church. It develops Sunday School teachers, Church workers, pastors and Missionaries, and fulfils a mission that has been performed by no other organization in the Church.

It is to be regretted that where there are the fewest Leagues they are most needed. Our League Survey Map, to which is called the attention of the Conference, shows vast sections in our territory that are almost religious deserts. Whole counties are not only without Leagues but without even Methodist preaching places. Is it a wonder that the Church is in danger of losing the intellectual leadership of the world? These fertile young minds must be trained in the Kingdom of God, and the pastor who would do this work after he is gone can best project himself into the life of the future Church by leaving behind him an active young Christian force to carry on his work. A short-sighted, temporal, idea of the growth of the Church will not lead to the establishment of Leagues and will not continue the church on an enduring foundation. There are few charges in which at least one League cannot be maintained. In a survey of the North Alabama Conference it was found that some pastors nearly always had Leagues and others had none. Some pastors would find none and organize, others would find Leagues and let them die. The League takes nurture, but no organization yields better to proper treatment, or repays better for its care.

Probably no Auxiliary in the Church suffered as much from the influenza as the League. And our brethren are urged to re-organize the Leagues they let die on their hands last year, and to organize as many new ones as they can care for.

Wherever a pastor needs assistance in organizing or re-organizing a League he is offered the help of the Secretary of the District.

The League Conference is raising an African Centenary special of $2,000, maintaining a Missionary, Miss Fannie O'Brien, at Jenkins, and adds several hundred dollars to the amount that is appropriated by the Annual Conference, for the expenses of the League Conference. The League Board appropriates the Conference League Assessment in a ration of 2 to 3, giving the larger amount to the Conference Epworth League, and will supervise the work of the Conference Epworth League. We are asking for the same appropriation provided in the Discipline as last year.

The Day of the League is approaching, and the pastor who fails to recognize his opportunity in the League will fail in one of the great tasks committed to his hands; but he who gives himself freely to this task will doubtless come rejoicing, bringing with him precious sheaves.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

The Board takes great pleasure in speaking in complimentary terms and unstinted eulogy of this society. It has made for itself a great name, the climax of which was reached at the close of the world war. During the past century it has worked with splendid enthusiasm, and with burning zeal, for the betterment of humanity. Since the organization of this society in 1816, it has distributed 134,000,000 copies of the Scriptures throughout the world, regardless of color or nationality. Its spirit is that of the pioneer or missionary, hence the spirit of our Master. It exalts the Word of God, and exists only for its distribution. Nor does it commercialize its commodity, but sells at cost or below, and in many instances it is absolutely given free. It has nine Home, and eleven Foreign agencies, which cover the most of our home fields, and much of the Foreign Missionary fields. It also has correspondence in more than thirty countries outside of those included in the agency field.

This society began the distribution of the Scriptures to our military and naval forces during the Mexican War and continued it during the Civil and Spanish-American wars, and during the mobilization on the Mexican border. Statistics show that during the Civil war 3,000,000 volumes were given to the Northern soldiers, and 300,000 were given to the soldiers in the South.

In the Russo-Japanese war tens of thousands were given to those soldiers. From April 6, 1917, till December 31, 1918, a period of less than twenty-one months, the American Bible Society furnished to our own soldiers and sailors 4,548,871 volumes of the Bible, Testaments, and portions of the same, and the total number distributed during the war was seven million volumes.

The need is great, the home agencies having found 35,882 families without a Bible in 1917; and there are hundreds of thousands of persons who need the Gospel, and incidentally Bibles in their homes. Abroad, hundreds of millions have not yet heard that there is a Gospel. Opportunities, in some instances unprecedented, are now open in Siam, China, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Africa, the South American Republics, Central America, the Canal Zone, and the island possessions of the United States.

The Society is said to be rich; the fact is, that it has an endowment which brings in about $85,000 a year. What is this to meet an annual expenditure of $600,000 to $800,000?

The chief financial resources of the Society for its world-wide, soul-saving, life-blessing work, is its living, generous friends. The society must have increased gifts from its living friends if it is to meet the hunger and need of the world.

In view of these facts thus set forth we would urge upon our people to give this Society their sympathy and hearty co-operation in the great work in which they are engaged.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. KENDALL, Chairman.

L. C. DeARMOND, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. M. P. MORGAN.

Milton Patton Morgan was born in Lee County, Virginia, March 31, 1835, and died in Crab Orchard, Kentucky, March 27, 1919, lacking just four days of having completed his eighty-fourth year.

His parents were William and Nancy Chadwell Morgan, of whom he was the ninth and youngest child. They moved to Kentucky when he was a child, and settled in Pulaski County, about ten miles from Somerset. Both father and mother were strict Methodists, great in prayer, his father being class leader. Their home was the stopping place for the circuit rider, and also the preaching place, as there was no church building in the neighborhood. Our Brother Morgan was converted early in life at a camp meeting near the home community, and soon after went to Alabama for educational advantages, which he could not obtain near home. The name and location of the institution he attended could not be learned. After several years in the school, he was an assistant teacher for a few years. Two older brothers, James and William, were merchants in Arkansas. Thither he went, and clerked for them, and was with them at the beginning of the war between the States, when he and his brother James enlisted in the Confederate Army, his brother being captain of his company. He served in the army about two years, and was honorably discharged on account of hemorrhage of the lungs. He was married in 1891 to Miss Sallie Porter, who died from measles after only eight months of married life. After the war, in company with his captain brother he went to Texas in search of health for both. There they operated a cotton plantation until his brother died. Burying him there, he returned to his childhood home in Pulaski County, Kentucky, where he ministered to his mother in her last days, and after her death he came to Lincoln County, and for some years conducted a mercantile business at Maywood. His Local Preacher's License is dated Crab Orchard, Ky., June 6, 1885, and is signed by Rev. D. G. B. Demaree, Presiding Elder of the Irvine District. He was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference in 1885. He was ordained Deacon at Paris, in 1889, and Elder at Harrodsburg, in 1891, both ordinations by Bishop A. W. Wilson. He served the following circuits: Whitesburg one year, Crab Orchard two, Pineville two, Tollesboro three, Dover two. He was superannuated in 1896.

After many years of widowerhood, he married Miss Mary B. Gormley, at Crab Orchard, October 3, 1889. To them were born six children, three of whom died in infancy, and one daughter died in 1914, aged 19. One son, M. C. Morgan, agent L. & N. Railroad, at Glasgow Junction, one daughter, Mrs. Lucile Anderson, of Stanford, and their mother, survive. Brother Morgan's Christian character was sincere, firm, courageous. His ministry, though begun late in life was faithful, earnest, aggressive, fearless, devoted, and effective. During his years of superannuation he was industrious to the extent of his endurance. His presence in the home community was a benediction, and his influence was always for good. Just two months before his death he suffered a fall in his home, causing helpless confinement from a badly fractured hip. A few days after this accident I visited him, and found him cheerful and hopeful, clear in mind, and strong in the faith, confident in Divine providence, and ready for the translation.

The funeral was conducted by this writer and Rev. F. D. Palmer, in the Christian Church, at Crab Orchard, in the presence of many of his neighbors and friends from a distance.

WILLIAM D. WELBURN.

REV. EDWARD EVERETT HOLMES.

Rev. Edward Everett Holmes, son of Dr. Enos and Anna Holmes, was born in Hillsboro, Ohio, 1852, and passed into the great beyond on Thursday morning, June 30, 1919.

Although he had been in poor health for several years his departure was sudden and unexpected. On the afternoon of June 29 he was stricken with appoplexy and was found by his wife in an unconscious condition, in which condition he lingered until the next morning when the angel of death gently snapped the cords of his mortality and set his immortal spirit free.

Among his papers was found, after his decease, a request that I should prepare his memoir for the Conference memorial service and the Conference Journal, of which request I knew nothing until a few days ago. I was never thrown with Bro. Holmes except on Conference occasions and hence am at a disadvantage in preparing this paper and have had to draw largely on those who knew him more intimately for the necessary facts concerning his life and character.

Bro. Holmes was licensed to preach in 1874, and was admitted on trial into the Ohio Conference, M. E. Church, in 1882, and was ordained Deacon at that session of the Conference, having served in the local ranks for eight years. In 1884 he was ordained Elder. In 1889 he was received into the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, where he spent the remainder of his life serving faithfully the following charges: Visalia and Independence, three years; Owingsville, three years; Vanceburg, four years; Walton, two years; Ghent, one year; Foster Circuit, one year; Warsaw, four years; Maysville, Second Charge, two years; Perryville, two years; Owingsville, the second time, three years. He took a superannuate relation in 1914, and has since been on the ineffective list, making Owingsville his home.

Never having heard him preach, nor having been within the bounds of his pastoral charges while he had charge, I wrote to Rev. D. W. Robertson, who was for several years his Presiding Elder, as to his preaching ability and faithfulness in his pastoral work. The following is his reply:

"Bro. Holmes was a man of retiring habits. He shrank from a free and indiscriminate mixing with people. He was studious. When he undertook to study a subject he pursued it through all its ramifications to the point of exhaustion.

"As a preacher he was clear and strong. His sermons bore the marks of careful preparation. He was true to the standards of Methodist orthodoxy. There was nothing doubtful about his knowledge of our teaching on the fundamentals of the gospel. This, I would call his most marked characteristic as a preacher. In his relation to others he was gentle, manly and courteous. He was loyal to the appointing powers. When assigned to a charge he went to it and stayed with it. Although serving some charges that gave meager support, I never heard him complain, nor do I recall a single complaint from the people he served. Generally, I would say, he was best loved where he was best known."

I give these facts from Bro. Robertson just as he wrote them and I am quite sure he knew Bro. Holmes as well, or better, than he was known by any of the other brethren of the Conference.

Bro. Holmes never attained to the position in the Conference nor received the class of appointments, commensurate with his ability. This, perhaps, grew out of his modest, shrinking disposition and his indisposition to do such pastoral work as the people generally demanded. He loved his books.

Bro. Holmes was twice married. Of his first wife I have no information as she died previous to his coming to this Conference. In 1895 he married Miss Louise Hutchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hutchison, of Owingsville, Ky., with whom they lived after his retirement from active service. The paper of that place in the notice of his death had this to say of him: "Mr. Holmes was a scholarly, well-read man and too modest to be called a great preacher. He was a gentleman by nature and by culture. He was a brother of the late Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilton County, Ohio."

The paper at Walton has the following kind things to say of him: "Rev. Holmes was pastor of the Walton Methodist Church a number of years ago and during his pastorate here endeared himself to his congregation by his kind, gentle and God-like manner. Bro. Holmes was a most loveable man, kind, unostentatious, charitable, with a good word for everyone. He drew to him a host of loving friends, not only in the church, but from all classes who deeply regret to hear of his death."

The quotations from these papers show the esteem in which he was held by those among whom he lived and wrought. As an evidence of his deep Christian character he left this motto: "My supreme desire has been to make this my motto, living, dying and throughout the vast eternity: 'Hallelujah! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.'"

Bro. Holmes fought bravely the battles incident to the Methodist itinerancy and when the time came to leave the firing line and fall back to join the wounded and infirm while yet the battle raged, he marched to the rear with the same firm and gallant tread with which he entered the battle. Had he given his life in the service of his country he would have retired with a competency, and would not have heard the wolf snarling and snapping at his heels as he faced the humiliating conditions that awaited him. But for loving friends throwing open their home to him he must necessarily have suffered. May the Lord abundantly bless them for their loving kindness to the old worn and weary soldier of the Cross.

T. F. TALIAFERRO.

REV. G. L. LEWIS.

Rev. Guy Leonard Lewis, son of George B. and Nannie Thomas Lewis, was born on a farm near Petersburg, Va., on August 25, 1895. He was converted at ten years of age and soon after his conversion felt called to preach. From that time on his one thought and plan for the future was to make of himself a preacher, but just when he was budding into manhood all his plans seemed blasted by a breakdown in his health. Being advised by a physician that his health would never permit his going to school to prepare for the ministry, he adjusted himself to what seemed a necessity and turned his attention to farming. After a course in an agricultural school he superintended a farm near Roanoke, Va., for nearly a year. While engaged in this work he regained his health and returned to his home with the feeling that he must now continue his preparation for the ministry. In the fall of 1915 he came to Kentucky and entered Asbury College. On May 3, 1917, he was granted license to preach by the Danville District Conference in session at Wilmore and was received on trial in the Kentucky Conference at Cynthiana on September 5, 1918, and at the close of the session was appointed to the McCreary Mission.

During his college life he had spent his vacations and other odd times in evangelistic work, both in preaching and leading in song. In this work he was happy and useful. He was a fine singer, a strong and promising young preacher. His affable disposition made friends quickly and held them tenaciously. There was no fear that he would fail to hold his people.

Though still a student in college he took hold of his new work with vigor and in spite of the fact that the Influenza epidemic kept his churches closed for more than half the time he had charge of them, he had gotten deeply into the affections of the people who looked to him for religious leadership. He was already making a start that promised success and prospects seemed good for a long and useful career in the ministry when on December 10, 1918, he was stricken with influenza, a week later pneumonia developed and on Sunday morning, December 22, just as worshippers were gathering for morning worship he quietly slipped away to be with God. They took him back to his old Virginia home and laid him to rest near his mother who had passed on and was waiting for him to come. It was a sad disappointment not to see him live to develop into the strong and useful ministry that promised to be his, but his life was not spent in vain. Many will be better and stronger because he passed this way and in passing touched their lives.

C. H. GREER.

MRS. NELLIE BRYANT NOLAND.

Mrs. Nellie Noland, whose maiden name was Bryant, was born January 20, 1887, in Bracken County, Ky. Through many difficulties she obtained a good education, and became a very successful teacher. She united with the Methodist Church early in life, and lived a true Christian life. She was married to Rev. J. Russell Noland, a member of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, June 26, 1913. She was a true help-meet in his itinerant work, always willing to deny herself that they might do the most possible for the Kingdom of God. She was very active in church work, and greatly loved by all who knew her. When she was taken sick all was done for her that loving hands could possibly do, but still the dreaded disease preyed upon her, until the temple of clay was finally dissolved, and then her soul went out to be forever with God. Surrounded by loving friends she passed from "the city of destruction" to "the Celestial City," June 6, 1919, at Simpsonville, Ky.

She was the mother of two children, Russell Elizabeth, born July 11, 1916, died July 14, 1916, and Margaret Isabel, born November 28, 1918.

Mrs. Noland has gone from us for awhile, but "we sorrow not as those who have no hope," for her soul is now with God where she awaits our coming.

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." That beautiful Christ-like life of hers, snatched away so soon by death, was not in vain. She lives now in the hearts of many, and we are made better by having known her. Her funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. F. Felts, pastor Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Bellevue, Ky., a former pastor of hers, at Augusta, Ky., where now lies all that is mortal of her. She sleeps "Beneath the clover and the wind-swept grass" loved by all. Peace be to her. Signed, A. F. FELTS.

MRS. H. H. KAVANAUGH.

Mrs. Anna Kimbrough Kavanaugh passed into the great beyond at her home on Capitol Avenue and Todd Street in Frankfort, Ky., November 1, 1918, at 9:30 p. m., after a hard fight with bronchial pneumonia. The coming of the grim monster did not find her off her guard. For long years she had lived with reference to this final event. She was prepared and ready to answer the summons. She could truly say: "For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day."

She was born in Green County, Ala., October 9, 1840, the daughter of the late Marmaduke and Elizabeth Douthitt Kimbrough, of good Scotch-Irish stock. She was the consort of Rev. Hubbard Hinde Kavanaugh, to whom she was united in marriage at her home in Alabama, December 22, 1863. She first met him when he was a student at the Southern University, Greensboro, Ala., he being employed to preach to her father's slaves while a student of that institution.

The late Hubbard Hinde Kavanaugh was a nephew and namesake of the great Bishop Hubbard Hinde Kavanaugh, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of sacred memory. I wish I had space to say something from a personal knowledge, of this great man of God but his life and labors are a part of the history of the church which he so faithfully and eminently served.

The husband of the subject of this sketch was one of the noblest characters I have ever known. I am not writing as a stranger to this family, but as one who has known, honored and loved them from his earliest childhood. Under the ministry of Rev. W. B. Kavanaugh, father of Revs. Peter, H. H. and Dick Kavanaugh, I united with the church when a boy of about ten years of age.

Miss Anna Kimbrough was well bred. Blood means much in the human, as well as in the merely animal world. Her father was a wealthy Southern planter of distinction. She was born in antebellum days before the cruel war between the states laid waste the beautiful homes and plantations of the South, and was reared in the lap of luxury, refinement and culture. She gave her heart and hand to an humble student of the University, who, when the war broke upon our long peaceful land, became a soldier in the Confederate army, rising from the ranks to Chaplain of his regiment, (the 6th Kentucky Infantry of the noted "Orphan Brigade") in which service he was thrice wounded. I have heard men say who served with him that they had often known him to dismount from his horse, put a footsore and weary soldier in the saddle and trudge for many weary miles with the boys.

After the war he joined the Kentucky Conference and filled various appointments in that Conference until in 1883, when he was appointed Chaplain of the Kentucky Penitentiary, at the instance of General Fayette Hewitt, his old comrade in arms, who was then State Auditor of Kentucky. Never did the Kentucky Penitentiary have a more unselfish, loving and loveable Chaplain than he. He held this position until released by death.

In his labors in the Methodist itinerancy, Mrs. Anna K. Kavanaugh labored with him, heart to heart and soul to soul. Trials, hardships and sacrifices were patiently endured as "seeing him who is invisible."

She was no ordinary character. Belonging to the old type of wife and mother, she sought not a place in the marts of trade nor in the political arena; but as a keeper of the home, devoted herself to the rearing of her children, the guiding of her household and as a true helpmeet to her husband. A true wife, a loving, sensible mother, she regarded the character of her children as of more importance and their spiritual welfare of greater value than to shine in society. In this she sacrificed nothing of the best interest of her children, for in securing the greater she also secured the less. With such training and motherly devotion it is not surprising that they have attained to honorable position and usefulness in society, state and church.

She was the honored mother of seven children, one (Anna) dying in infancy. Hon. William M. Kavanaugh was elected County Judge of Pulaski County, Ark., his adopted state, served a term in the United States Senate, refused the nomination for the Governorship (which was urged upon him) and at the time of his death, in 1915, was National Democratic Committeeman of that state.

Hon. Frank K. Kavanaugh, who for a number of years has been, and is now, the efficient State Librarian of Kentucky, and member of the Board of Stewards of the Frankfort M. E. Church, South, Secretary-Treasurer of the Sunday School, and who never misses a prayer meeting, Sunday School, church service, or a Quarterly Conference, of which he is always elected Secretary.

Coburn C. Kavanaugh, of Little Rock, Ark., is Labor Commissioner of that State, in which position he is making an enviable record.

Mrs. Clarence Gayle, Mrs. Earl Rogers, and Miss Josephine Kavanaugh, are faithful members of our church here and following in the footsteps of their sainted mother. No higher honor could be ascribed to them than this.

She left a family of five children, seventeen grandchildren and one great grandchild and one sister, Mrs. Theodosia Frances Jones, of Irondale, Ala. She has five grandsons in the service of their country.

Sister Kavanaugh was deeply interested in everything pertaining to her church, and was a member of its various societies, being greatly and efficiently interested especially in the cause of missions; and it was a joy to her to have the society meet in her home. Her house was ever open to the preachers who passed her way, and they always found a cheerful welcome and loving entertainment. Having been a constant reader of the Nashville Christian Advocate, the Central Methodist and other literature of the church, she kept abreast of all its enterprises and could give a reason for the hope that was within her.

Her mortal remains were laid, by loving hands, beside those of her sainted husband in the beautiful cemetery overlooking the Capitol, Sunday, November 3, 1918, where the winds will sing their requiem through the pines and the birds will carol their praises over her sleeping dust.

The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. L. Bohon, assisted by the writer.

Thus lived, loved and passed into the greater, better life one of the most useful and helpful lives that have blessed our state, leaving many who mourn, and bless her memory.

"She opened her mouth with wisdom and in her tongue was the law of kindness.

"She looked well to the ways of her household, and ate not the bread of idleness.

"Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also praised her.

"Many daughters have done virtuously, but she excelled them all."

T. F. TALIAFERRO.

MRS. W. J. SNIVELY.

Rebecca Frances Latta was born in a humble home on the banks of Kentucky river, ten miles above Frankfort, Ky., May 17, 1836. Little is known of her father's antecedents. Her mother was of the numerous McKee family, well known throughout central Kentucky. The characteristics of her Scotch-Irish ancestry were strongly marked in Sister Snively.

On the 19th of May, 1853, she was married to Rev. W. J. Snively, then a young minister serving Cedar Chapel, close to the old Kentucky Military Institute. From that time to July 5, 1899, when Bro. Snively died, her life was merged into that of her husband, whom she faithfully supported in all his ministrations. She was a homemaker rather than an active church-worker, though she made a host of friends at Nicholasville, Millersburg, Carlisle, Cynthiana, Lexington, and elsewhere in the Kentucky Conference. While serving the Lexington charge, during the Civil war, Bro. Snively was compelled by the Federal authorities to give up his charge. He removed to Olney, Ill., and was there engaged in business for four years. Returning to Kentucky, he was again received into the Kentucky Conference. Later, he was transferred to the new Illinois Conference and was Presiding Elder of the Cairo District. Coming again to Kentucky, he served until his failing health made it necessary for him to retire from the active ministry. He moved to Louisville, and it was here that the writer knew him and his wife during his last years. After Bro. Snively's death, Sister Snively moved to LaGrange and remained there until 1913, when she came back to Louisville to make her home with her only living child, Prof. Russell H. Snively. It was here that, on February 1, 1919, she passed to her home above. A good woman, after years of toil in companionship with an itinerant preacher, then a long widowhood, has entered into rest and joy.
